

Columbia College Alumni Association

*Providing a Network of Mutual Support to Past, Present, and Future
Columbia College Students*

I AM PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE the successful launching of the Columbia College Alumni Association. The 2006 graduating class chartered the association, with over 50 members joining.

My name is Keturah Wilk, and I graduated from Columbia in 2000. After completing a bachelor's degree at Cal State Stanislaus, I began working as an accountant at Roberson & Co. Ron Roberson, who hired me, is also a Columbia College alumnus (and a member of the College's Hall of Fame). I am extremely honored to serve on the Columbia College Foundation board of directors, and to chair the newly formed Columbia College Alumni Association (CCAA).

We are collecting alumni success stories and other news and notes, which we will publish on the CCAA pages of each year's Honor Roll. When we have enough CCAA members, we hope to publish our own Alumni Directory and a CCAA Annual Newsletter.

When you pay your $10 annual dues, you will receive a CCAA lapel pin, invitations to Foundation events, and an opportunity to contribute to next year's Alumni News & Notes.

If you have taken at least one class at Columbia College, please join the CCAA! We hope to have 200 members by June of next year. The more members we have, the more we will be able to accomplish!
