

Example Basic Skills SLOs

Students will know how to discuss and describe technical terms.
Students will describe and demonstrate the three ways communication flows through an organization
Students will provide written evidence documenting an analysis of relevant material
Students will express themselves clearly when writing or speaking about _____
Students will demonstrate knowledge of basic _____ terminology and understanding of major _____ concepts.
Students will make progress toward becoming self-reliant and independent learners.
Students will be able to read, interpret and apply information from written materials relevant to the course.
Students will effectively organize, present, interpret and summarize quantitative information.
Students will demonstrate ability to relate and interact effectively in teams consisting of individuals with different interests, genders, backgrounds and professions.
Students will make ethical use of data, information, hardware and software