

Financial Aid

- Students will demonstrate the ability to successfully apply for financial aid online.
 - Count of the number of “paperless” applications
 - Survey sample of financial aid applications for self-report of competence in completing the application

Scholarships

- Students will demonstrate the ability to successfully complete the online scholarship application.
 - Measured by number of online vs. typed applications
 - Survey sample of scholarship applicants for self-report of competence in completing the application

Veterans

- Veteran students will demonstrate the ability to meet the responsibilities of veterans benefit guidelines.
 - Measured by number of students who submit accurate Educational Plans and change of program forms

College Wide Student Learning Outcomes

Critical and creative thinking (Psychological)

- Graduates will be able to assimilate information, evaluate its relevance, develop a plan of application, and decide upon the relevance of any outcome through
 - Reflective practice
 - Life long learning
 - Self determination
 - Critical thinking

Civic, environmental, and global awareness (Behavioral)

- Graduates will be able to develop values, opinions, attitudes, and behaviors that underlie and support active citizenship through
 - Civic engagement
 - Leadership development
 - Advocacy
 - Collaboration, team-building and mentoring

Individual and collective responsibility (Behavioral)

- Graduates will be able to correctly follow instructions for performing new tasks while applying past experience in relevant situations by demonstrating
 - Self responsibility
 - Academic growth and emotional development
 - Reliability
 - Equity, fairness, and dignity

Mastery of relevant theory and practice (Behavioral)

- Graduates will demonstrate in-depth, critical knowledge of the theory, research and practice relevant to their chosen professional roles and focus areas, including skill development in
 - Organization
 - Computation
 - Communication
 - Research

Program to College Wide SLO Matrix

Program to College Student Learning Outcomes Matrix	1. Critical and Creative Thinking ➤ Reflective practice ➤ Life Long Learning ➤ Self determination ➤ Critical thinking/logical thinking	2. Civic, environmental, and global awareness ➤ Civic engagement ➤ Leadership development ➤ Advocacy ➤ Collaboration, team-building and mentoring ➤ Cultural Awareness	3. Individual and collective responsibility ➤ Self responsibility ➤ Academic growth and emotional development ➤ Reliability ➤ Equity, fairness, and dignity	4. Mastery of relevant theory and practice ➤ Organization ➤ Computation ➤ Computer literacy and information competency ➤ Oral and written communication ➤ Research, including quantitative and scientific reasoning
Students will demonstrate the ability to successfully apply for financial aid online.
Students will demonstrate the ability to successfully complete the online scholarship application.
Veteran students will demonstrate the ability to meet the responsibilities of veterans benefit guidelines.				